

Pieter Nuytten (1980) started bassoons lessons with Koen Coppé at the age of 15 and studied bassoon at the conservatories of Antwerp, Cologne and Basel with Francis Pollet, Danny d'Haene (contrabassoon), Prof. Georg Klütsch and Sergio Azzolini.

As a student Pieter was selected for the European Union Youth Orchestra, the Pacific Music Festival Orchestra (Japan) and the Gustav Mahler Jugendorchester. Early on he worked with conductors like Claudio Abbado, Bernard Haitink and Ivan Fischer.

Pieter was on trial for Associated Principal Bassoon with the Royal Scottish National Orchestra in Glasgow in 2004. In the same year he became principal in the Orchestra of the Opera de Rouen - Haute Normandie and since 2007 in the Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra. His Chief Conductors were Valery Gergiev, since 2008 Yannick Nézet Séguin and since 2018 Lahav Shani. As a guest principal Pieter appeared with other orchestras such as the the Radio Philharmonic Hilversum, the Mozarteum Orchestra Salzburg, the KBS Symphony Orchestra Seoul, the Gürzenich Orchestra Cologne, the Mahler Chamber Orchestra (Nelssons) and the Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra Amsterdam (Harding/Fischer). During the 2014-15 season he was also principal in the Rundfunksinfonieorchester Berlin under Marek Janowski.

He is passionate about chamber music and had the privilege to work with musicians as Nicholas Daniel, Jonathan Kelly, Priya Mitchell, Natacha Kudritskaya, Vladimir Mendelssohn, Vineta Sareika and Jean-Claude Vanden Eynden. Pieter participated in Festivals like Classic Con Brio Osnabrück, Storioni Festival Eindhoven, Schiermonnikoog International Chamber Music Festival and Arbanassi Summer Music (Bulgaria). Pieter is a founding member of the Antwerp based Focus, de Bewoners, the Kölner Kammersolisten, and performs as a regular guest with Oxalys (Brussels).

In 2001 Pieter made his debut in Mozarts Sinfonia Concertante in Bozar, Brussels. Since then he performed numerous concerti and concertante by Peter Maxwell Davies, Haydn, Vivaldi, Weber, Strauss and Mozart in concert halls in Belgium, the Netherlands, France, Germany and Croatia with conductors as Roy Goodman, Daniel Kawka, Hubert Buchberger, Ulrich Kern, Nicholas Collon, Ivan Meylemans, Christoph Campestrini and Ben Gernon.

With Flanders Symphony Orchestra Pieter and his wife Marija Pavlovic performed the Duet Concertino by Richard Strauss in the main concerthalls in Bruges, Ghent and Antwerp in 2016 and in the Dubrovnik Summer Festival with the Dubrovnik Symphony Orchestra.

There was a live radio broadcast of the Mozart Bassoon Concerto with Collegium Instrumentale Brugense in 2008 and a radio recording of Weber's Andante and Rondo Ungarese with the Brussels Philharmonic in 2015.

In the 21-22 season there are dates for Haydn Sinfonia Concertante in Dubrovnik, Weber Andante and Rondo with the Rotterdam Philharmonic and the Aho Concerto for 2 bassoons with Bram van Sambeek and the Antwerp Symphony Orchestra.

Follow Pieter Nuytten music on <https://www.codarts.nl/en/teachers/pieter-nuytten/> and <https://debewoners.be/>.